

Manhandling Seminars

Get your love-life heated up with Lauren Frances Ph. Double D!

Kate Walsh, Grey's Anatomy*

As one of her romantic researchers, I can tell you that Lauren Frances' man handling techniques are spot on. She truly has her finger on the pulse of male-female relationships.

Romantic Rule: If you keep on doing what you're doing, you'll just keep getting what you're getting!

Most women desire a truly fulfilling romantic relationship. They crave this deep connection with another and will often work very hard to achieve their romantic goals, but often wind up frustrated, disappointed, confused or hopeless (or all of the above!)

If you aren't winding up with the results you want no matter how hard you try, it's probably because your tools, habits, and behaviors (Manhandling Skills) are out of date, dysfunctional or just plain aren't working.

That's where personal love coaching comes in.

If you're like countless women who seem to keep hitting roadblocks to the fulfillment of your hearts desire, you may benefit from a session with me.

I'll give you a diagnosis of your romantic problem, and a Love RX specifically designed to get you out of the woods so that you can finally fulfill your romantic destiny... Cause every girl deserves a very hot and sweaty romantic ending!
